If my child is assigned to the Spanish Immersion Academy, I will make the following commitment:

- To keep the child in the immersion program;
- To become well informed about immersion education;
- To read to my child daily and engage him/her in activities where they need to apply what they are learning in class;
- To communicate regularly with the teacher about my child's academic, social, and language development; and,
- To support the child's use of the immersion language outside the school context, for example, by providing reading materials in the immersion language at home and encouraging a pen/keypal friendship.
