

Subject	Latin I	Latin II	Honors Latin III	Latin IV
Ideas students are learning	Personal pronouns Forum of Pompeii Greek and Roman theater Imperfect and perfect tenses	Present active participles Perfect passive participles Personal and demonstrative pronouns Roman Republic	Understand the infinitive Understand perfect and pluperfect subjunctive Reading/translations	Read Roman literature Recognize style, meter literary devices Scansion and diction Literary figures
Skills	Translate sentences Explain Roman forum and parts of the Roman theater Use the perfect and imperfect tenses	Diagram/analyze sentences Identify case,gender, number Discuss Roman systems	Analyze infinitives in indirect statement Translate infinitives in context of a reading	Summarize the poems from different perspectives Scan lines in the appropriate meter
Work and assignments to look for	Create a verb poster, media presentation about the theater Compare the Pompeian forum to modern theaters	Create a series of contrast drawings-participles Create a timeline of the Roman Republic Create a concept map	Create manipulatives to formulate infinitives Identify and translate perfect and pluperfect subjunctives	Write an essay comparing Catullus with The Beatles Illustrate how Catullus uses elisions to make a point
Questions Parents Can Ask	What is the difference between the imperfect and perfect tenses? How does the theater in Pompeii differ from ours?	Who are some heroes of the Roman Republic? What are some major parts of the Roman legal and political systems?	What is an infinitive? What is an example of the subjunctive in English?	Who is Catullus? What is a couplet? How is a poem scanned? What is a simile?
Special Notes	Encourage students to study vocabulary 10 minutes a day Encourage students to create a chart/graph to help distinguish verbs	Encourage students to study vocabulary 10 minutes daily Ask students to tell you about a particular Roman	Encourage students to practice translating and using the subjunctive Encourage students to study vocabulary daily	Encourage students to read and scan texts daily for practice Encourage students to study vocabulary daily	