

Subject	9th Grade	10th Grade	11th Grade	12th Grade	Music Theory I
Ideas students are learning	Pitch patterns Melody Rhythm Harmony dynamic contrast	Pitch patterns Melody Rhythm Harmony dynamic contrast	Pitch patterns Melody Rhythm Harmony dynamic contrast	Pitch patterns Melody Rhythm Harmony dynamic contrast	Melody Rhythm Tempo Dynamics Pitch Patterns Symbols
Skills	Intermediate to advanced performance and sight reading skills.	Intermediate to advanced performance and sight reading skills.	Intermediate to advanced performance and sight reading skills.	Intermediate to advanced performance and sight reading skills.	Reading and Writing Music. Interpreting Music symbols.
Work and assignments to look for	Singing songs and sight reading new music.	Singing songs and sight reading new music.	Singing songs and sight reading new music.	Singing songs and sight reading new music.	Short music examples to write and analyze.
Questions Parents Can Ask	What kind of songs are you singing in choir?	What kind of songs are you singing in choir?	What kind of songs are you singing in choir?	What kind of songs are you singing in choir?	Why is it important to understand the symbols of music?
Special Notes	Please plan to attend all performances.	Please plan to attend all performances.	Please plan to attend all performances.	Please plan to attend all performances.

PARENT A GLANCE

Find out what your child is learning and how to help.

Subject	Music Theory II	Music Theory III
Ideas students are learning	Melody Rhythm Tempo Dynamics Pitch Patterns Symbols	Melody Rhythm Tempo Dynamics Pitch Patterns Symbols
Skills	Reading and Writing Music. Interpreting Music symbols.	Reading and Writing Music. Interpreting Music symbols.
Work and assignments to look for	Short music examples to write and analyze.	Short music examples to write and analyze.
Questions Parents Can Ask	Why is it important to understand the symbols of music?	How are patterns used in music?
Special Notes					