

SUBJECT	Beginner English Language Learners	Intermediate English Language Learners	Advanced English Language Learners
Ideas students are learning	Students who have been with us from the beginning of the school year should have acquired some survival language.	Students who have been with us since the beginning of the school year are using the language they have learned to acquire more	Students are able to communicate socially and academically in English; however, they still need support to insure comprehension.
Skills	Students will develop listening, speaking, reading and writing in English allowing them to express their own thoughts in social and	Students will continue to develop their oral, reading and writing skills in English. The concepts will be more abstract and complex.	A good number of students will have to take TAKS; therefore, it is important to insure oral and written comprehension.
Work and assignments to look for	Students will be engaged in many language development activities emphasizing vocabulary development & comprehension.	Students will be involved in many projects with peers; they will be asked to read and to write in all subjects; teachers will continue to model	Students will participate in more sophisticated research, independent readings and writing assignments at their grade level in all
Questions Parents Can Ask	Is my child participating in class? How can I help my child at home? What can I expect in the following weeks?	How can I help my child at home? How can I tell that my child has progressed in all subjects?	What type of assessments will my child take? What do the results mean? When will my child stop receiving Bilingual/ESL services?
Special Notes	Acquiring a second language takes time; some students will stay longer in the silent period. The students who have been with us from	Continuous attendance to class is extremely important. Students active participation in all his/her classes will yield greater success. As the	As the year progresses the academic language will become more demanding and the students will continue to increase his/her		