

SUBJECT	Art I	Art II	Drawing	Art 2D	Art 3D
Ideas students are learning	The student will develop an understanding of the process of printmaking using Elements of Art and the Principles of Design.	The student will continue to work on their portfolios now adding self portraits and personal experiences in an expressive piece of artwork.	The student will begin analyzing art works from the past and present to enhance the quality of their drawings and their own self portraits.	The student will work on their individual portfolios adding new media and advanced techniques focusing on texture.	Students will use the Elements of Art and the Principles of Design in three-dimensional artworks showing depth and space.
Skills	Students will develop higher level thinking skills demonstrated in a well organized personal artwork using a specific learned process. .	Students will know how to draw themselves in an expressive way demonstrating their abilities and higher level thinking skills.	Students will self critique, make informed evaluations and use professional vocabulary to defend their decisions. Students self portraits will have an	Students will self critique, make informed evaluations and push their level of creativity for quality art work. Multiple textures should be focused on.	Students will develop the skills to organize their works and make decisions to submit their art works in various art competitions.
Work and assignments to look for	Student will be developing a refined ability to apply the Elements of Art and the Principles of Design in their own personal expression using the printmaking	Student will be working on individualized artwork developed for their Advanced Placement Portfolio.	Student will be working on individualized drawing various Elements of Art and Principles of Design focusing on proportion and value.	Your child will be working on individualized art work developed for their Advanced Placement 2-D Portfolio.	Students will have sketchbooks and large works to show you. They also will have digital images of the work being submitted for Advanced Placement.
Questions Parents Can Ask	What materials did you use to create your artwork? What process did you use? Why did you select the subject matter? Does your work express a personal feeling or	What is your linear perspective? Can you show me aerial perspective? Are you happy with your work?	How did you represent yourself? What medium did you use? Did you have a personal experience in mind when you began your artwork?	What is your concentration? What gave you the idea for your series of works of art? What types of texture have you used in your artworks?	What media have you used in your 3-D work? How did you show depth and space?
Special Notes	Art is specialized and open ended. The program allows the art specialist to select different media and will include a variety of projects.	Art is specialized and open ended. The program allows the art specialist to select different media and will include a variety of projects	Art is specialized and open ended. The program allows the art specialist to select different media and will include a variety of projects.	Art is specialized and open ended. The program allows the art specialist to select different media and will include a variety of projects.	Art is specialized and open ended. The program allows the art specialist to select different media and will include a variety of projects.