

SUBJECT	Latin I	Latin II	Honors Latin III	Latin IV
Ideas students are learning	Dative case/indirect objects/infinitives Ablative and accusative Prepositional phrases Pompeii Roman invasion - Britain	Active and Passive voice Use of voice in present and perfect tenses Roman emperors Roman architecture	Read and analyze the poetry of Catullus Scansion Use of literary devices in Catullus' poetry Translation of poetry	Read and translate Horace's odes: Book 111.9,13,30, Book IV,7
Skills	Use ablative and accusative Discuss life in Pompeii Describe Celt life and culture Discuss deities	Identify patterns and use/translation of passive voice Identify Roman architecture evident in cities around the world	Reading poetry Scansion of poetry written in hendecasyllabic meter Analyze literary devices Translation of poetry	Translation and reading of poetry Analysis of meaning through use of literary devices
Work and assignments to look for	Write eye-witness account of eruption of Vesuvius Create a poster of Roman vs Briton products	Write 2 cinquain poems - 1 passive, 1 active Label sites of Ancient Rome Color-code a map of Roman expansion	Create visual representations of Catullus' work Write an essay discussing his various relationships	Illustrate change of seasons, change of life - Odes IV-7 Write an essay comparing themes of poetry and power
Questions Parents Can Ask	What is the difference between the ablative and the accusative cases? Why is Pompeii so important?	Discuss Roman expansion What is meant by voice? What are some local examples of Roman architecture?	Who was Catullus? What literary devices did he frequently use in his poetry? What is scansion of poetry? Meter?	Who was Horace? What is an ode? What literary devices are unique to an ode? Are there any unique to Horace?
Special Notes	Encourage students to study vocabulary 10 minutes a day Encourage students to create a chart/graph to help distinguish cases	Encourage students to study vocabulary 10 minutes daily Ask students to tell you about a particular Roman emperor	Encourage students to practice translation and scansion. Encourage students to study vocabulary daily	Encourage students to read and scan texts daily for practice Encourage students to study vocabulary daily	