

SUBJECT	World Geography - 9th Grade	World History - 10th Grade	United States History-11th Grade	Government	Economics
Ideas students are learning	Students will learn about the physical and cultural geography of Asia.	Students will learn about imperialism and colonization.	Students will learn about events leading up to the Cold War and the Civil Rights movement.	Students will learn how democracy promotes individual liberties and free elections.	Students will learn basic economic terminology and the laws of supply and demand.
Skills	Students will use skills such as analyzes, organizing information, map, and critical thinking skills	Students will use skills such as analyzes, map, critical thinking, organizing and cause and effect.	Students will use skills such as analyzes, organizing information, map, and critical thinking skills	Students will use skills such as analyzes, map, critical thinking, organizing, and cause and effect.	Students will use such skills as graphing, organizing information and critical thinking.
Work and assignments to look for	Students will create a bar graph on Global Interdependence.	Students will create a timeline regarding expansionism and transformation from 1800-1914.	Students will create a CD cover with three songs about the Vietnam War.	Students will create a graphic organizer showing the cause and effect the tax acts imposed on the Colonists	Students will write an essay on why the government believes it has the right to intervene in markets to promote competition
Questions Parents Can Ask	What is meant by the term "global" economy?	What is the importance of the Suez Canal?	What were the international and domestic effects of the Vietnam War?	How has representative government evolved since 1215?	How does supply and demand create a balance in the market place
Special Notes	Research the internet and study the many cultures of Asia	Research Europe's interest in the colonization of Africa	Visit the VietnamWarMemorial.gov - Website	Students will use varied primary and secondary sources such as the U.S. Constitution to analyze and interpret information	Visit the Federal Reserve website.