

SUBJECT	Latin Grade 7	Latin Grade 8
Ideas students are learning	Nominative, dative cases Adjectives Indirect Objects Gladiators Plural accusative	Characteristics of neutral gender Gender positions in declensions Characteristics of endings of declensions
Skills	Recognize the various cases in readings Identify the accusative and nominative cases Recognize degrees of adjectives in translations	Identify patterns of case and usage Decline nouns and adjectives Explore Egyptian religion in Rome
Work and assignments to look for	Draw and narrate a comic strip of a gladiatorial show Create a chart of degrees of adjectives Create advertisement	Categorize groups of neuter nouns Categorize nouns using declensions and genders Illustrate Egyptian gods
Questions Parents Can Ask	Who were the gladiators? What are the degrees of adjectives? Why is this important to understand?	What influence did Egypt have on Rome? What are the various types of nouns? Why is word order important?
Special Notes	Discuss the influences of the Roman culture on today's world Encourage students to practice vocabulary and translation skills	Ask students to share their thoughts on the Egyptian myths Encourage students to practice translation daily			