

Landing of the Colony of flood tide. The first of these, long since reduced to a long, low sandspit, hardly discernible above the water, the voyagers named St. Clements, and chose as their first landing-place on Maryland soil. It had then a sloping shore, and cedars, nut-trees, sassifras, with

Transparency 2 – Jamestown Tobacco Plantation

Transparency 4 – First Settlement of Boston

Species Indiarum in praesentia a Colombo

Exploration - 1492

NOTE:
Columbus and Indians
North coast of South America
Painted by Philipp Petermann

N. S. PETERMANN
DRESDEN 1840

Transparency 5 – Columbus Enjoys New World Riches