

HOUSING and HOMELESS

Organization	Services	Contact	Title	Email	Phone Number
Fort Worth Housing Authority	affordable housing that provides a foundation to improve lives.	Lachelle Mclane-Veal	Ross Service Coordinator	lmclane-veal@ftwha.org	817-470-7211
Catholic Charities Fort Worth	The Financial Stability Program provides financial education classes and one-on-one coaching in order to assist individuals and families in increasing income, debt reduction, savings, and building assets such as a home. Financial education classes cover a variety of topics, such as: budgeting, credit, predatory lending, financial services, and insurance. Credit counseling, housing counseling and general financial coaching are all provided in an effort to assist families achieve financial stability.	Cindy Casey	Community Resource Manager	ccasey@ccdofw.org	817.534.0814
ACH Emergency Youth Shelter	Offers runaway, homeless and street youth as well as trafficking survivors, ages 10-17, 24-hour immediate safe shelter and care while ACH works to reunite them with their families, or find safe and meaningful alternative living arrangements. Provides outreach, education and case management services for homeless youth, age 17 and under	Melvin B. Lee	Shelter Outreach Coordinator	melvin.lee@achservices.org	817-349-1835
Wedgwood Residential Program	Offers safe, stable and nurturing homes for children and youth, ages 5-17, who are unable to live with their families. Provides basic and therapeutic services in safe residential care that assist children, youth and their families through crises, promote family reunification where possible, and secure and/or provide the optimal level of living for each child.	Melvin B. Lee	Shelter Outreach Coordinator	melvin.lee@achservices.org	817-349-1835
LIFE Project	The LIFE Project (Learning Independence from Experience) promotes self-confidence and self-sufficiency for eligible young adults, ages 18-21, and their dependent children aging out of foster care (Supervised Independent Living) and homeless young adults, ages 18-21 (non-CPS), by providing independent living housing options and skills development.	Melvin B. Lee	Shelter Outreach Coordinator	melvin.lee@achservices.org	817-349-1835
Families Together	Parent-child transitional housing. Offers homeless, single-parent families a transitional housing environment while they work to overcome the crisis that led to their homelessness and return to independent living. Short-term, basic and therapeutic services in safe residential care are provided to maintain the family unit, promote and encourage family independence, and promote and encourage long-term self-sufficiency and family stability.	Lois Loeffler	Families Together Program Supervisor	Lois.Loeffler@achservices.org	817.335.HOPE (4673)

HOUSING and HOMELESS

Organization	Services	Contact	Title	Email	Phone Number
Safe Place	Locally administered national program designed to provide immediate help and safety to young people, under the age of 18 years, who are experiencing a crisis. Safe Place sites are developed in partnership with business and community locations that are easily accessible to youth. Locally, this critical community safety net makes it possible for youth to get help fast at locations displaying the distinctive yellow and black Safe Place sign. Provides response to youth at Safe Place locations.	Angela Lewis	Safe Place Coordinator	angela.lewis@achservices.org	817.566.1625
O.P.E.N. Doors (Opportunities and Programs Meeting Educational Needs)	Students in homeless situations and unaccompanied youth have the right to attend school and may receive assistance with: school enrollment, school supplies and clothing, transportation to school of origin, free school breakfast/lunch, medical prescriptions and eyeglasses, tutoring in after school program, referrals for family counseling and parenting instruction, referrals to community agencies	June Davis	Director of Special Programs	june.davis@fwisd.org	817.814.2875.
Case Management for Homeless Children- Women's Center	In partnership with Cook Children's Hospital, The Women's Center provides case management and parenting education to families living in Presbyterian Night Shelter, Union Gospel Mission, and Arlington Life Shelter to help them transition out of homelessness.	Amy Suffield		asuffield@womenscentertc.org	(817) 927-4040
Samaritan House	The mission of Samaritan House is to create a supportive community providing housing and resources for positive change in the lives of persons living with HIV/AIDS and other special needs. Resident services are available at Villages of Samaritan, Hanratty Place Apartments, and Pennsylvania Place Apartments.	Aneisa Watson	Family and Residential Services	awatson@samaritanhouse.org	817-332-6410