The Fort Worth Independent School District is working with the community on a new project intended to ensure elementary and secondary students deeply connect with the rich history, cultures and contributions of African and African-Americans.

Connect with us to learn more about the work, share your ideas, and celebrate!

When? 5:30 – 7:30 pm | November 2, 2017
Where? The Dock Bookshop
6637 Meadowbrook Dr, Fort Worth, TX 76112

The evening includes a panel discussion with members of the African and African-American History and Culture curriculum project team.

Panelists
Richard Benson, PhD.
Historian and Asst. Professor at Spelman College

Ms. Khechara Bradford
Asst. Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction, FWISD

W. Marvin Dulaney, PhD.
Historian and Associate Professor Emeritus at UT Arlington; Former Interim Director of the Center for African-American Studies at UT Arlington

The Friends of Cobb Park
Community Members

Moderator
Mr. Milan Sanders
Chosen Business Consulting LLC/ "Workable Genius"

Questions? Please contact the FWISD Social Studies Dept. at 817.814.2470.

Please note.
(1) Food will be available for purchase on site the night of the event.
(2) A second event is planned for early December 2017. Details to be published soon.