Athletic Eligibility

Middle school and high school athletic programs are governed by eligibility and contest rules in the UIL Constitution and Contest Rules manual adopted by the State Board of Education and the State Legislature. Fort Worth ISD policies also apply.

A. Middle School

1. Students enrolled in a Program of Choice (POC) or School of Choice (SOC) are eligible for all UIL athletic activities at that campus.
2. Students who discontinue enrollment in a Program of Choice or School of Choice are returned to their home school and may continue athletic participation at their home school.
3. Students may participate in athletics at the appropriate grade level.

B. High School

1. Students enrolled in a Program of Choice (POC) or School of Choice (SOC) are eligible for varsity athletic participation their first year if their parents or legal guardians reside within Fort Worth ISD attendance boundaries and the student has not previously attended another Fort Worth ISD high school.
2. POC or SOC students who return to their home school or attend another school in the Fort Worth ISD are ineligible for varsity participation for one year.
3. Students attending a school outside of their home attendance zone will require completion and approval of a Previous Athletic Participation Form (PAPF) before they ever play at the varsity level. The PAPF should be completed the first year the student attends school.
4. All other UIL and Fort Worth ISD eligibility rules will apply.

By signing below, I certify that I have read and understand the athletic eligibility policies of the UIL and Fort Worth ISD. I also understand there are other rules and regulations not noted above that may impact the athletic eligibility of my child.
